PROGRAMS

CREW Programs feature hot topics and subject matter important to the commercial real estate professional. Held seven to nine times annually, these programs feature CREW DC members, as well as outside subject matter experts in keynote and panel presentation formats. Notable and popular programs include multi-faceted development analysis, prominent female speakers, industry trends, and government and political presenters. Companies which are part of CREW's annual sponsorship program also receive benefits at nearly every level to these exciting events.

CREW DC EVENTS

- The CREW DC Annual Awards program recognizes members for exemplary achievement in the commercial real estate field, recognizing both individuals and teams for notable performance. Previous awards have included outstanding impact, corporate leadership, annual achievement, placemaking, dealmaking, best interiors project, best local marketing campaign, and a rising star award for emerging professionals
- Members-only networking events
- Leadership and professional development training
- Special programming for senior-level members and those early in their career development

CREW EDU

Offers opportunities for CREW DC members to learn more about the current commercial real estate development landscape and trends in the local industry. Throughout the spring and summer months CREW EDU hosts tours of notable development projects, giving attendees an opportunity to discuss the project with key development principals while experiencing the spaces first-hand. In addition to the tours, CREW EDU offers educational forums where industry experts discuss current topics influencing the Washington, DC metropolitan markets.

CREW CNCC GOLF PROGRAM

The CNCC Annual Golf Program is intended to introduce women who are unfamiliar with golf to the sport as an important business and networking tool. The Annual Golf Program is a three-part program beginning with a networking opportunity and basic skills event, held in a friendly and relaxing setting. Women who are interested in studying the fundamentals of the sport are invited to participate in a series of golf lessons, which take place at local golf courses in the DC area, typically for 4-6 weeks. Then, the program concludes with a 9-hole, women's only Golf Outing, one of the few in the area targeted specifically for novice players.

UCREW

The UCREW program targets young women before they launch their careers, and organizes activities for college and graduate-level students to introduce them to the career opportunities within the industry. Students are invited to participate in externship opportunities with local companies, and scholarships are granted to women wishing to pursue degrees in the field.

COMMUNITY ACTION

CREW DC recognizes the importance of giving back to the community where we live. We serve as corporate sponsor for charitable events, including Lombardi Cancer Center's Women & Wine, Trust for the National Mall and Boys and Girls Clubs of Washington Real Estate.

Our Community Action Committee supports four local non-profit organizations which serve disadvantaged and vulnerable women and their families by providing financial support, volunteer time, and volunteer talent through our pro-bono partnering program. Organizations include:

- District Alliance for Safe Housing (DASH)
- New Endeavors by Women (NEW)
- Suited for Change
- Thrive DC
